

Best Complex Sentences:

| Sentence Starter | Example Sentence   |
|------------------|--|
| Since            | Since she is an expert in graphic design, we hired her for the project.    |
| Considering      | Considering you have experience, you should apply for the job.             |
| Concerning       | Concerning the recent updates, the software will be offline tonight.       |
| Due to           | Due to heavy rain, the match was postponed.                                |
| Because of       | Because of his dedication, he was promoted to manager.                     |
| Not only         | Not only did she finish the report, but she also presented it to the team. |
| Given that       | Given that it's your birthday, we should celebrate.                        |
| While            | While I enjoy coffee, my friend prefers tea.                               |
| Although         | Although it was late, they continued working on the project.               |
| Based on         | Based on the evidence, the jury reached a verdict.                         |
| Even though      | Even though he was injured, he finished the race.                          |
| Unless           | Unless we leave now, we'll miss the train.                                 |
| If               | If you study hard, you will pass the exam.                                 |
| As soon as       | As soon as the bell rang, the students left the classroom.                 |
| Whenever         | Whenever she visits, we go out for dinner.                                 |
| Before           | Before you leave, make sure all the lights are off.                        |
| After            | After they won the game, they celebrated all night.                        |
| In case          | In case you need help, call me anytime.                                    |
| As long as       | As long as you keep practicing, you'll improve.                            |
| Provided that    | Provided that the weather is good, we'll go hiking tomorrow.               |
| Though           | Though it was challenging, they completed the mission successfully.        |
| Even if          | Even if it rains, the event will continue.                                 |
| So that          | She saved money so that she could buy a car.                               |
| Whereas          | He likes action movies, whereas she prefers dramas.                        |

|                |  |
|----------------|--|
| Despite        | Despite the difficulties, they achieved their goal.      |
| Because        | Because she was tired, she went to bed early.            |
| Unless         | Unless you try, you'll never know.                       |
| Whether or not | Whether or not it's true, we need to investigate.        |
| Now that       | Now that the semester is over, I can relax.              |
| Rather than    | Rather than complain, you should try to fix the problem. |

HZad Education