

400 Words to Easily Plug and Play in All CELPIP Speaking/Writing Questions to Score 9999!

—

1. blurry - not clear
2. cozy - comfortable
3. rigorous - detailed or thorough
4. rehearse - practice
5. allege - blame
6. convict - criminal (noun) or criminally charging someone (verb)
7. testify - to bear witness
8. verdict - final decision
9. adore - appreciate
10. envy - be jealous of someone (verb)
11. enthusiasm - eagerness
12. brag - show off
13. cautious - careful
14. affection - love or emotions
15. fond - proud of
16. poverty - lack of money
17. tenant (the one renting) and landlord (the owner of the premises)
18. slogan - saying (mostly of companies)
19. valuable - important
20. crew - group

21. harvest - to take out crops when they are fully grown

22. prosper - to be successful

23. possess - own something

24. shallow - not deep

25. fluid - water like substance

26. decay - go bad

27. batch - group

28. aftermath - after events

29. plethora - a lot of

30. temper - mood

31. postpone - delay

32. conceal - hide

33. swap - exchange

34. exhaust - use up

35. shrink - become small

36. tremble - shake

37. soak - make wet in the water

38. timid - shy

39. urge - persuade

40. agitate - disturb

41. absolute - the most or the greatest

42. classify - to attach a name to something

43. scaffolding - outer structure

44. supplant - replace

45. aura - vibes

- 46. focal - point of focus
- 47. astray - go away from the right path
- 48. pursue - run after
- 49. aggregate - total
- 50. explicit - to make clear

—

Hold on! Try to ask a friend or family member to ask you the meanings of the previous words! It's important to revise every 50 words!

—

- 51. deviate: move away from course
- 52. arbitrary - based on random judgement
- 53. predominant - powerful
- 54. indifferent - not caring
- 55. reinforce - remind
- 56. considerable - a lot
- 57. constrain - to limit someone
- 58. convene - to come together
- 59. correspond - matches with
- 60. demonstrate - show
- 61. specify - to give a title or assign a position
- 62. impose - force
- 63. implicate - to suggest something
- 64. subsequent - next
- 65. despite - instead
- 66. hypothesis - to assume after considering various options

67. draft - rough version
68. evolve - to grow
69. equivalent - equal version
70. adapting - getting used to something
71. advocate - support
72. equip - to gift you with some tool
73. empirical - based on facts
74. contrary - opposite
75. ideology - a set of beliefs
76. hierarchy - a system of a management structure
77. intervene - interrupt
78. successor - one taking the office after you
79. predecessor - one taking the office before you
80. undertake - to take the responsibility of doing a task
81. ignorant - people who are not fully aware of situations with complete information
82. interval - periods of time
83. paradigm - a way of thinking
84. deviate - move from the current course of action
85. simulate - copy
86. distort - to change the shape of something
87. sphere - round object
88. restrain - stop someone from doing something
89. minimal - very little
90. preliminary - initial stages
91. norm - commonly accepted

92. confine - limit someone or something
93. cease - stop
94. coherent - organized
95. coincide - happen at the same time
96. attain - to get something tangible or intangible
97. erode - erase
98. integral - important
99. rigid - difficult to change
100. concurrent - same as current
101. underlie - to be the cause of something
102. initiate - start
103. inhibit - to prevent something from growing
104. explicit - detailed instructions (adjective)
105. cite - to use something as a legitimate example
106. clause - a part of a legal agreement
107. facilitate - help someone achieve something
108. legit - (informal) legal
109. discreet - careful in one's actions
110. enabler - someone who encourages someone else
111. detractor - opposite of enabler
112. disparage - degrade
113. dogma - a set of firm beliefs
114. impulsive - acting on impulse without thinking
115. bash - hurt someone physically or verbally
116. abstract - existing in mind, not real

- 117. abysmal - terrible
- 118. clinical - not emotionally involved
- 119. conceive - come up with an idea
- 120. conducive - suited to
- 121. confide - express real feelings
- 122. dubious - doubtful
- 123. eloquent - very expressive
- 124. envy - to be jealous
- 125. imprudent - rude
- 126. scandalous - morally offensive
- 127. surmount - to overcome
- 128. validate - to prove
- 129: unveil - make something possible
- 130: vital - necessary

—

Effective Word Replacements (Move from 7777 to 9999):

—

- 131. exceptional (instead of "good")
- 132. recent (instead of "new")
- 133. lingering (instead of "long")
- 134. decaying (instead of "old")
- 135. precise (instead of "right")
- 136. odd or exotic (instead of "different")
- 137. immense or massive (instead of "large")
- 138. youthful (instead of "young")

- 139. sparsely (instead of "never")
- 140. belongings (instead of "things")
- 141. discern (instead of "feel")
- 142. come across as (instead of "seem")
- 143. hardly (instead of "just")
- 144. upcoming (instead of "next")
- 145. plausible (instead of "possible")

—

Academic CELPIP Words Continued:

—

- 146. ambiguous: not clear
- 147. conform: to agree with the norm
- 148. evident: clear
- 149. implicate: to accuse someone of being involved in a crime or something negative
- 150. append: fix or attach
- 151. partisan: biased
- 152. discrete: separate
- 153. infer: conclude
- 154. inherent: something existing as a characteristic
- 155. reluctance: unwillingness
- 156. precede: come earlier in sequence
- 157. offset: use something as compensation
- 158. prognosticate: predict (something serious)
- 159. mediate: reconcile differences between two parties
- 160. rigid: stubborn, not moving

161. abate: to lessen
162. adversity: problematic situations
163. brazen: bold
164. condescending: looking down on someone
165. mundane: boring
166. reverence: deep respect
167. prosperity: wealth
168. canny: careful
169. disdain: to show hate
170. intuitive: knowing something with intuition
171. spontaneous: do something without thinking/abruptly
172. superfluous: unnecessary
173. null: void
174. vindicate: to free from blame
175. entail: involve
176. arid: very dry
177. frugal: stingy
178. convergence: coming together
179. diligent: hardworking
180. intrepid: fearless
181. orator: speaker
182. parched: when something is dried up
183. reclusive: avoiding other people
184. reconciliation: bringing people together
185. haughty: being arrogant

186. aberration: something unusual
187. jubilation: extreme happiness
188. apex: top or high point
189. capacious: having a lot of space
190. delirious: not being in a normal state of mind
191. kindle: start a fire
192. noxious: lethal
193. hangar: storage area for a plane
194. cower: move as in you are in fear
195. tangible: can be touched
196. credible: believable
197. tardy: sluggish
198. blatant: obvious
199. hasten: make something faster
200. abstain: avoid something
201. repudiate: nullify something
202. cringe: become uncomfortable
203. tenacious: aggressive or stubborn
204. cryptic: puzzling
205. lampoon: ridiculous
206. admonish: scold
207. alias: temporary name
208. assiduous: similar to hardworking
209. circumvent: surround the enemy to make them give up
210. cognizant: knowledgeable or aware about something

211. debacle: complete disaster
212. debunk: clarify a mystery
213. eclectic: a dynamic range of something
214. emulate: to copy someone as a role model
215. hapless: something that fails and deserves pity
-

-
216. incontrovertible: something that cannot be denied
217. negligent: someone not paying attention to their duties
218. insidious: something hidden and harmful
219. laconic: to the point
220. maverick: someone who shows independence
221. amorphous: no shape
222. candor: being straightforward

223. capitulate: surrender
224. conduit: a passage
225. disrepute: bringing low respect
226. duplicity: the act of being fake
227. fallacious: based on the wrong reasoning
228. linchpin: a central authority
229. ostensible: looks that appear as something but are actually deceiving
230. proclivity: the intention or inclination to do something
-

Excited to practice? Check if you can use these words with these popular CELPIP Topics: <https://hzadeducation.com/2022/11/10/celpip-task-1-and-2-topics/>

231. ramble: to go off saying things continuously which are not relevant
232. vilify: make someone the bad guy
233. languish: lose beauty or charm
234. pariah: a social outcast
235. maxim: short statement backed by facts
236. aggrandize: to enhance power
237. beguile: to influence in a deceptive way
238. archetypal: typical
239. callous: disregard for others
240. cognizant: being aware of something
241. construe: the way something is interpreted
242. disparate: completely different

243. denigrate: criticize harshly
244. idiosyncratic: something unique about someone
245. inveterate: habitual
246. multifarious: diverse
247. largesse: generosity
248. obdurate: stubborn
249. promulgate: to spread or broadcast
250. phlegmatic: showing no emotion
251. accord: something consistent with the other or in agreement
252. astounding: amazing
253. armored: fully sealed or protected
254. divest: to deprive someone something
255. debrief: to question someone
256. docile: obedient
257. fluster: to confuse someone
258. fetter: to bound or restrain someone
259. fuse: to mix or blend together
260. rudimentary: basic
261. tempest: violent or windy storm
262. taint: to make something worse or ugly
263. tactless: not showing sensitivity or care
264. adroit: full of talent
265. pep talk: encouraging words
266. proclaim: declare something of importance
267. lethargic: lazy

268. considerable: great
269. downright: complete or total
270. explicit: clear or detailed
271. forthright: straightforward and honest
272. full-blown: massive
273. constrain: compel someone
274. vehement: showing strong passion
275. dawdle: to waste time
276. retardment: the delay in processing something
277. showstopper: something that deserves applause
278. cessation: stopping something
279. expedition: a quest to discover something
280. hustle: to get something by forceful action
281. engrossed: completely occupied in some activity
282. astute: very smart or sharp
283. visceral: something inside your body OR a deep feeling
284. lateral: at or toward or the side. It points to something
285. presumptuous: someone who does not know what is appropriate in certain situations
286. oversight (noun): missing something while making analysis
287. pretentious: faking something or showing off
288. win-win: when both sides win
289. push the envelope: push the limits of something
290. bending backwards: to try something really difficult
291. rustic: plain and very simple
292. proactive: responding to situations with your feelings or attitude rather than reacting to them

293. reimagine: think of something again
294. higher order thinking: thinking beyond simple memorization
295. ballpark: rough estimate
296. core competency: your advantage that distinguishes you from others
297. entitlement: your privilege to have something
298. holistic: the complete thing
299. toil: hard work (noun) OR to do hard work (verb)
-

Extremely Unique but Fancy Words:

300. pester: to annoy someone
301. porringer: a small bowl
302. backhaul: return trip of a vehicle
303. gaslight: to manipulate someone
304. awfulize: to make something sound awful
305. hench: a muscular, strong person
306. microtarget: to target a person or people based on all data available about them
307. patient zero: the first patient identified of a certain disease
308. sadfishing: using social media to exaggerate one's pain in order to gain sympathy
309. amplify: make something bigger
310. unfathom: starting to comprehend something
-

CELPIP Words to Describe Pain:

- 311. dread - feeling of fear
 - 312. anxiety - nervousness or feeling alarmed
 - 313. grief - feeling of sorrow
 - 314. bland - tasteless
 - 315. ache - pain
 - 316. fatigue - tiredness
 - 317. sanitary - related to health
 - 318. sore - part of your body under pain
 - 319. trauma - physical or mental pain
 - 320. slender-thin
 - 321. bruise - injury
 - 322. bargain - to argue
 - 323. affiliate - to link
 - 324. surplus - excess of something
 - 325. venture - business activity involving risks
-

Positive Words (and usage):

You know what we need more of in life? POSITIVITY! If you have heard of the law of attraction and its influence on people, you might have thought it's just people making up things but it's really not!

Now how about we add this energy into our English learning and learn to replace our negativity with vocabulary full of energy, positivity and excitement?! Here are sentences people say and replacements with positive affirmations:

- 326. It's hard for me to do - How do I make it FEASIBLE?
 - 327. I want to quit - How can I be PERSISTENT?
 - 328. I can earn $50,000/yr - I have CONVICTION that I can earn $50,000/yr
 - 329. I feel positive that I can win this competition - I feel MY FATE is to win this competition
 - 330. I believe that I can do it - I have FAITH that I can do it
 - 331. I feel bad - I am OPTIMISTIC
 - 332. I have less luxuries - I have AMPLE luxuries
 - 333. I am okay with things - I am CONTENTED with life
 - 334. I am hungry for money - I am PASSIONATE for money
 - 335. I like to grow - I like to FLOURISH
 - 336. I am a good worker - I am an ARDENT worker
 - 337. I like challenges - I like to OVERCOME challenges
 - 338. I don't deserve it - My efforts MERIT my rewards
 - 339. I do want to be a success in life - I am DESTINED to be a success
 - 340. Nothing can hold me back - I am EMBOLDENED to move fast
-

CELPiP Words to Describe Excitement:

When in situations where you are with friends or family or at a party, you need to use light words to express your joy and relate with others. It would be terrible if you are supposed to enjoy but your weak ESL skills restrict you from using the right CELPIP words. Well, use these!

- 341. lively: fun or full of life
 - 342. thrilling: exciting
 - 343. festivity: party
 - 344. dine: eat food
 - 345. tango: dance (more used in formal/ballroom type dances)
 - 346. relish: enjoy
 - 347. gratifying: enjoyable
 - 348. ecstatic: very happy
 - 349. giggle: laugh
 - 350. holler: scream
 - 351. mingle: socialize
 - 352. grin: smile
 - 353. berserk: crazy
 - 354. fooling around: acting like a crazy person
 - 355. jest: to express a joke
-

CELPiP Words to Express Anger:

These 15 CELPIP words are best used to describe situations where you are angry or uneasy! Excellent words to learn when you need to define your frustrations!

This will be handy for writing and speaking! These CELPIP words are also going to be familiar to your ear as many people probably have used this with you before. Whether you are at work, with friends or simply learning better phrases for your IELTS/CELPiP/OET/PTE/TOEFL/SAT exams, or writing/speaking, HZad Education has you covered!

Here they are:

- 356. irate: angry
- 357. antagonize: make someone irritated
- 358. salty (informal): irritated
- 359. pissed off (informal): angry
- 360. exacerbate: make something worse
- 361. sulky: uncooperative or bad-tempered
- 362. resentful: hateful of somebody

- 363. abhor: have disgust for something (verb)
 - 364. queasy: feeling nauseated
 - 365. had it with/sick and tired of: completely annoyed with someone or something
 - 366. appalled: horrified with something or someone
 - 367. denounce: accuse
 - 368.: disparage: degrade
 - 369. belittle: make someone feel unimportant
 - 370. patronize: insult someone in a way to degrade them
-

CELPIP Words to Describe Events (Very Common Cases of Usage. Remember the goal: 9999!):

- 371. chaotic: full of craziness or chaos (COVID stuff)
- 372. segregated: discriminative (mandates dividing people)
- 373. progressive: something that progresses into something positive (technological advancements made)
- 374. turbulent: fluctuating wildly (Crypto world)
- 375. unnerving: causing one to lose courage (Taliban attack)
- 376. intriguing: interesting (NFT creation online)
- 377. unearthing: discovering something new (discovery of the 'Southern' Ocean)
- 378. prodigious: amazing (Richard Branson going into space)
- 379. ominous: scary (natural disasters)
- 380. cutthroat: competitive (banks trying to compete with bitcoin)
- 381. shortsighted: silly (The US government vilifying billionaires)
- 382. aggrandizement: growth (the growth of Tesla and Amazon)
- 383. coercive: forceful (forcing people to get the job)
- 384. comical: laughable (Sleepy Joe as the President)
- 385. historical (something that will be remembered)

- 386. questionable: controversial
- 387. looks sharp: handsome; you can say he "looks sharp"
- 388. leftist: communist
- 389. collected: calm and soft-spoken
- 390. fascist: dictator
- 391. triumphant: successful
- 392. crook: corrupt
- 393. amiable: polite and friendly
- 394. diplomatic: someone who never picks a side
- 395. efficacious: efficient or active
- 396. squanderer: someone who spends money without thinking
- 397. strategic: careful in strategy
- 398. megalomaniac: hungry for power
- 399. affluent: rich
- 400. acclaimed: known for